CHESTERFIELD BEFORE ITS INCORPORATION

OUR TOWN has its roots deeper into time than the date of its incorporation. What happened before that date and how the early inhabitants received title to lands in what is now Chesterfield makes a very interesting study.

The original source of title to the New England soil, as in other parts of the continent, was in the English crown which claimed it on the right of discovery and possession.

There were several steps by which these titles passed from the crown to individuals in the New England Colonies. We are interested in the step known as the Colonial Grants. The right to grant land was vested in the General Court and all grants were made by that body, except in New Hampshire where the Governor was the principal figure.

The individual grants which were made by the General Courts were usually in the nature of pensions, salaries, gratuities or for the encouragement of some commercial enterprise.

Chesterfield was laid out to two groups of proprietors receiving gratuity grants and one "equivalent grant".

First: The proprietors who received Narragansett grants to make the Narragansett townships.

Second: The proprietors who received Canada grants to make the Canada townships.

Third: To Nathaniel Coleman, who received an equivalent grant.

The Narragansett Townships were the townships which were granted to the officers and soldiers, their heirs and assigns, who had fought in the Narragansett War of 1675, more familiarly known as the King Philip's War. They have their origin in the proclamation which was made to the soldiers on the eve of the war, in the name of the Governor, promising them that "if they played the man, took the fort and drove the enemy out of the Narragansett country, which is their great seat, they should have a gratuity of land besides their wages."

Several years after the successful conclusion of the War, in 1685, two petitions were filed in the General Court, praying for such a grant. A township of eight miles square was granted accordingly but it was not located and the subject was buried in obscurity for forty years.

In 1727, the promise was revived and a petition was made anew. The General Court took it up into favorable consideration this time and granted two townships in 1728 and five additional townships in 1734.

These tracts were designated as Narragansett Township Number One, Two, Three, Four, etc.; seven in all. A part of Number Four was eventually embraced within the limits of the town of Chesterfield, though the tract was primarily laid out in New Hampshire. This grant received the name of Quabbin Territory and included the town of Greenwich, now extinct. This was insufficient to make up the six miles square needed for the proprietors of Narragansett Number Four so it was ordered "that a township of the contents of six miles square be laid out west of Hatfield (the part now Williamsburg) and adjoining thereto and as much as should be needed be confirmed to these proprietors" (meaning No. 4).

This new township was laid out in 1739 and contained 23,040 acres exclusive of six hundred acres granted to Coleman, making 23,640 acres in all.

The conditions of this grant were that they should settle forty families in Quabbin and twenty others in the township west of Hatfield, making sixty families which was the number required to be settled in each township. A committee was appointed by the General Court to oversee the laying out of the latter tract and they were empowered to admit forty other settlers in said township first giving preference to some soldiers or descendants of the soldiers engaged in the Canada expedition of 1690 who served under Capt. Thomas Andrews* of Hingham, Mass.

Very similar to the Narragansett Townships, the Canada Townships were granted to the officers and soldiers and their descendants, who had served in the disastrous Canada Expedition of 1690, a part of the King William's War. Following closely on the heels of the first Narragansett township grants, petitions for grants from these Canada soldiers came pouring into the General Court. It was some of these Canada soldiers who were given grants to make the forty additional families in No. 4.

The various histories of Western Massachusetts and Hampshire County, in speaking of the Coleman Grant, make such statements as "It has not been ascertained how Coleman's grant of 600 acres originated." Knowing that there must have been some good reason for this grant, search was made in hopes of finding the reason.

Early Hampshire County included all land west of the Connecticut River, and Springfield and Northampton took turns at being the shire city so early county records are in Springfield.

In the Hall of Records in that city was found the following:

“Know all men by these presents that whereas we, John Stoddard and Ebenezer Pomeroy of Northampton and Thomas Ingersole of Westfield on March 26, 1736 were by the General Court or Assembly of ye Province aforesaid specially authorized and commisionated amongst other things to Purchase lands of ye Proprietors of Upper Housatonnock (so called). In order to accomodate ye Indians and to give equivalents therefor in some of ye unappropriated lands of the Province to ye Proprietors of whom they should purchase land of as by ye order of ye said General Court or assembly. Reference to ye same being had will appear. Now, we the said John Stoddard, Ebenezer Pomeroy and Thomas Ingersole by virtue of said commission and authority to us granted, have purchased a right of land in upper Housatonnock Township of Capt. Nath’l Colman of Hatfield in the County and Province aforesaid, of the quantity of Four Hundred Acres. Now we ye sd Stoddard, Pomeroy and Ingersole, a committee as aforesaid have agreed with ye said Nath’l Colman to give him as an equivalent from ye government for we aforesaid right, 600 acres lying west of Hatfield Township lying on ye East Branch of Westfield River at a place called ye Long Pond beginning at a hemlock tree marked N. C. Thence running North Two Hundred Perch, etc. (measurements given).

Now we the said John Stoddard, Ebenezer Pomeroy and Thomas Ingersole by virtue of ye said Commission to us we do hereby give, grant and Convey and Confirm unto the sd Nathaniel Coleman to him, his heirs or assigns forever. To have and To hold possess and enjoy ye before granted premises, with all ye Priviledges and appurtenances thereunto belonging to him, his heirs and or assigns, etc. . . . provided the aforesaid land don’t fall within the township of Hatfield. In witness and whereof we have set our hands and seals this 24th day of May in the eleventh year of George ye Second, King and A. D. 1738.”

This was the reason why, in 1738, Nathaniel Coleman of Hatfield, in exchange for land owned in Upper Housatonic (now Stockbridge), was given these 600 acres of land in what is now Chesterfield but at that time was in "the unappropriated lands of the Province".

Capt. Nat'l. Coleman of Hatfield died intestate, but in the inventory of his estate is listed this grant which is another proof that he was its owner. The item reads—"the equivalent land for a Housatonuck right that lyes west of Hatfield" and was valued at 60£-0-0.

Why were these proprietors of Upper Housatonic asked to give up their lands in what is now Stockbridge "to accomodate the Indians"?

In 1724 by act of the General Court of the Province, two townships called, at first, Upper and Lower Housatonic Townships, were ordered to be laid out and not long after were allotted to some sixty persons who had petitioned for the territory. The land had been previously purchased of the Indians, except a tract—a reservation for themselves—of about 1,600 acres along the boundary line between the two townships. They seem, however, not to have gathered in a body on the reservation when, in 1734, a new aspect was given to their affairs.

Ebenezer Miller of West Springfield who appears to have been acquainted with the condition of these Indians and was thereby prompted to do them good, "interviewed" the Rev. Samuel Hopkins, his pastor, stated their case and succeeded in awakening his active interest in their behalf. The latter communicated with Col. John Stoddard of Northampton and with Rev. Dr. Stephen Williams of Longmeadow and from the co-operative benevolence of this trio of Christian philanthropists, good works proceeded.

After an agreement with the Indians, in October 1734 a man by the name of John Sergeant, a native of Newark, N. J., and a graduate of Yale, came to Housatonic and preached his first sermon to an audience of twenty Indians who were much interested. This was the beginning of the mission of Rev. John Sergeant to the Housatonic Indians, the details of which have been published in various books. In order to secure the best results for the Mission, on application by its founders to the Provincial authorities, a commission, consisting of John Stoddard, Ebenezer Pomeroy and Thomas Ingersole, was appointed to come and consult with the Indians and, with their consent, lay off a township expressly for them where they might be gathered. This was accomplished in the spring of 1736 and a township six miles square comprising the present territory of Stockbridge and West Stockbridge was laid off and three years later, incorporated. This was followed by a general removal of the tribe after eighteen months instruction at Great Barrington — from October 1734 to the spring of 1736.

It was for this cause then, that certain proprietors of land in Upper Housatonic sold their rights and were given “equivalents in unappropriated lands of the province, in different places”, and Nathaniel Coleman of Hatfield was one of those proprietors. The map of the original lay-out of Chesterfield shows the location of the Coleman Grant. The explanation of this map as prepared by J. C. Hammond tells which part of the town was set off for the proprietors of Narraganset No. 4 and which part for the Canada proprietors.

It must be remembered that almost 65 years had elapsed since the first of these Indian Wars and that the rights to these grants had in most cases been passed on to the heirs of the soldiers. The eldest male heir had the first right and after him the eldest female heir. The list of the Soldier Grantees of the Narraganset War is published in a book entitled “Soldiers in King Philip’s War” by G. M. Bodge. No list has been found of the claimants of 1690. The History of Hingham says of the soldiers—“We know not how many.” The records do say that those given grants here were the soldiers of Captain Andrew’s Co. of Hingham. In one land deed recorded in Springfield, it reads, “said grant was made in a Propriety called Andrews Town, now Chesterfield.”

The names which appear on the map are those of early settlers but very few, if any, are of the families who were given the original soldier grant. The rights were often sold and the lands sold and resold before the lot was finally settled.

For example, here are three transactions concerning one right of land — (1) In a deed recorded in Springfield dated August 25, 1737, Preserved Hall of Hingham, cooper, sold for 10 pounds, current money, to Timothy Bailey of Hanover — “all that my right in ye lands granted to the officers and soldiers in the Expedition to Canada under the command of Capt. Thomas Andrews, late of Hingham, Dec’d. or that may fall to me by virtue of my being a soldier on that expedition.” He sold his “right” making Timothy Bailey a proprietor. (2) On March 14, 1754, Timothy Bailey of North Yarmouth sold to Benjamin Briant of Scituate for 16 lbs. 13 shillings and 4 pence—one whole share of land in a township lying in the County of Hampshire on the west side of Hatfield granted by the General Court of this Province to Captain Andrews, his company in the Canada Expedition in 1690, in the Right of Preserved Hall of Hingham. Timothy Bailey sold his share of land but not his right. (3) On August 23, 1754, Benjamin Bryant of Scituate gave to his son Benjamin Bryant about 400 acres of land be it more or less, lying in the County of Hampshire in a Township Granted by the General Court of this Province partly to Capt. Andrews, his company in the Canada Expedition in the year 1690. That is to say 100 acres thereof being the 29th lott, another hundred acres being the 55th lott in said Township, the rest being all that remains to be laid out in said township in the Right of Preserved Hall. All three deeds were recorded in Springfield on the same day — October 20, 1760.

A copy of the Proprietors' Records of Narraganset No. 4 or Quabbin Proprietors is in the Hampshire County Registry of Deeds in Northampton. They are records concerning Greenwich, a small part of Chesterfield and the Chesterfield Gore. They are records of the surveying of the lots, the size of the lots, the drawing of lots, the amount of taxes required by the proprietors . . . the details are many.

The lots were drawn by number and at a meeting held on May 23, 1739, they "voted to proceed to draw their lots — and whoever shall draw a paper with the word Hatfield wrote upon it shall have their lots in a Tract of land west of Hatfield and adjoining thereto — To be drawn for again when the lots are layed out."

It may be safely stated of the general character of the proprietors whom these numerous grants created, that they were either land jobbers or speculators who were interested primarily in their personal profit through adventurous speculation in land and secondarily in the settlement of the western frontier. Of the original proprietors of the Narraganset township No. 4 (of 1732) there were hardly any original proprietors left on the roll of shareholders after twenty years.

Like most of the eighteenth century proprietors these proprietors were speculative and non-resident. Their early meetings which began in 1733 were held at the house of Mr. Israel Peck in Rehoboth and later in Greenwich.

Generally speaking, the division and regulation of common and undivided lands were the main subject at all proprietors' meetings and the propriety usually dissolved itself when its land was completely divided up among its members. The last meeting recorded in Northampton of the Proprietors of Narraganset No. 4 was May 27, 1778.

A big missing link is — where are the records of the Canada Proprietors? There is proof that their methods of dividing the land by drawing numbered lots was the same as the Narragansett Proprietors and their meetings are referred to in land transaction records. Only about one third of the township, the northeast corner, was set off to the No. 4 Proprietors and in 1781 part of that was incorporated into the town of Goshen. The assignment of the Canada Proprietors was about two thirds of the township — the part known as the New Hingham Propriety and nearly all of the town as we know it now.

So, more than a quarter of a century of time went into the work of founding a town, step by step. The General Court granted the "Rights" of land to the soldiers or their heirs and they became proprietors. The proprietors sold their land to land speculators who hoped for financial gain. The speculators in turn sold to men and women who were courageous enough to make new homes in this frontier country.

By the year 1762 enough of the land had been settled so that the settlers felt the need of town government and therefore applied to the General Court asking that the township be incorporated. On June 11, 1762, it was enacted by the Governor, Council and House of Representatives—"That the new plantation, called New Hingham lying in the County of Hampshire be and hereby is incorporated into a town by the name of Chesterfield with all the powers, priviledges and immunities that towns within this government have and do enjoy."

INTRODUCTION TO GENEALOGIES

The names of all families who have lived in Chesterfield during its first two hundred years are arranged in alphabetical order. In so far as information is obtainable from vital records, private records, land deeds, and probate records, that data is included in the following order: birth, death, marriage, or intention of marriage if the marriage data is not recorded, and children. If the residence is not Chesterfield, it is stated where known. If the state is not given, Massachusetts is understood. Where both husband and wife are Chesterfield residents, the full data is given under the husband's name. The following abbreviations are used:

b. born
m. married
m. (int.) marriage intentions
d. died
bapt. baptized
res. residence
rem. removed
ae. aged

80-1-12 eighty years and one month and twelve days

A small numeral above and to the right of a given name denotes a generation. Where printed genealogies of any family are available, the ancestry is summarized from the first ancestor known: e.g. John<sup>6</sup> Jones, son of John<sup>5</sup> (Peter<sup>4</sup>, Richard<sup>3</sup>, Thomas<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) and Mary Jones, means that the first ancestor known was John<sup>1</sup> Jones, his son, or the second generation, was Thomas<sup>2</sup>, etc., and John<sup>6</sup> was the sixth generation.

The number in parenthesis appearing after a name is the identification number of that person in the respective family.

The small star before a name means that that person is head of a family and his name appears again later in the family line.

If the variation in spelling of names and places may seem in error, it is because an effort was made to retain the spelling as in the original records. Different sources of the same record may disagree.

The committee realizes that, in compiling a book of this kind and size, it is quite possible that errors have been made for which we are sorry and can only say, "We have tried."

Sarah Flynn, b. 26 May 1743, dau. of Richard and Sarah Flynn. She d. 9 Nov. 1818. At the time of his marriage he was of Woodstock, Conn. In 1763 they removed to Goshen where he died. They lived about one the line between Chesterfield and Goshen which, no doubt, accounts for the fact that some records of the family are in Chesterfield. His father must have come with him as Ithamar Amedown was chosen Fence Viewer, 7 March 1773. Ebenezer Amedown's will is recorded in Northampton in which he provided well for his wife with plenty of corn, rye, wheat, pork, beef, "also what apples she needs to use and cider she needs to drink." Children No. 4 and 5 were born here. The others, except No. 7, were bapt. in the Chesterfield Congregational Church:

COLE FAMILIES

It seems quite safe to say that all the Cole families of Chesterfield were descended from James Cole of Plymouth. The published genealogy of the family offers no proof of some of the lines. There has been found no record of the parents of Consider Cole (No. 54). In order to make the picture as complete as possible, records of some of the Worthington Cole families have been included.

Quoting from an article written by William Bancroft and printed in the Hampshire Gazette, 4 April 1890: "Perez — I well remember as a diminutive specimen of an hilarious old-timer. This distinguished citizen hailed from Williamsburg, through his ancestry. He worked for my father, occasionally, during my boyhood and he was always addressed as simply "Pea". I remember hearing him tell that, when his grandfather was buried in Williamsburg, at his funeral the minister, "Old Parson Lord" I think, began the exercises by giving out this comforting composition of Watts:

Behold the aged sinner goes
Laden with guilt and heavy woes
Down to the regions of the dead
With endless curses on his head.

"Pea" died in Dec. 1839, during a protracted and terrible snow storm. A week after, I was one of a team of men and boys that hauled his corpse to the grave on a "cutter bottom". "Pea's" widow, well, she was a widow who looked ahead, sometimes. Deacon Rufus Burnell lived in her neighborhood. He had buried his wife, a saintly woman, three weeks before. While "Pea" was still unburied the good deacon called to offer his sympathy and assistance. The widow was in distress for both, and to prove the depth of her loss she tearfully inquired of the deacon if his wife, before her long anticipated death, had said anything about his taking a second wife."

THOMAS HATHAWAY

Benjamin<sup>5</sup> must have died soon after his son Daniel<sup>6</sup> was born, for the Berkley Church Records contain the marriage of the widow Abigail Hathaway, 17 May 1747, to Timothy Ingraham. Abigail and Timothy Ingram signed the deeds with Daniel<sup>6</sup> Hathaway of Freetown and his wife, Mary, 15 May 1770, conveying property where his grandmother, Hannah (Briggs) Hathaway, lived with his cousin, Jemima, spinster.

Daniel<sup>6</sup> Hathaway was apparently alive as late as August 1775, for the Pelham History, page 347, states "that fifteen additional Pelham men, including Daniel Hathaway, were dispatched to the seat of war near Boston under Capt. David Cowden in Col. Benj. Ruggles Woodbridge's regiment". No death record of Daniel has been found, but the Vital Records of Pelham include the marriage intention of Mary Hathaway, 12 July 1777, to Daniel There of Chesterfield. He was from Braintree and probably returned there.

We can infer that Thomas Hathaway came to Chesterfield with his mother; that he remained here with his cousin, Timothy Engram (son of Timothy Ingraham, who m. (1) 10 Jan. 1739/40, in Berkley, Jemima<sup>5</sup> Hathaway, sister of Benjamin<sup>5</sup> above). That Chesterfield sent a man to Pelham and to Freetown in search of help for his family during his (Timothy's) long and fatal illness, is in keeping with the above; that his father had died when he was young, and his grandfather died when his father was young, would explain why touch was lost with other Hathaways during this time.

In 1955, Rev. Edward Williams, Canon of Albany, N. Y., sent for our Chesterfield records, a copy of a transcript of the Family Bible of John House and Lydia Rhodes from which the following was copied:

"The Bible from which these records were copied was doubtless the wedding gift of John House, 3rd, when he was married to Lydia Rhodes in 1800. They were of Chesterfield, Mass., where they resided at least as late as October 1823, when two of their daughters were admitted to the Church. Perhaps the next year the family removed, settling at Thomson, O., in the Western Reserve. The Bible passed to the only son, John House, 4th, who married a Jane Electa Moseley, who had been born at Peru, Mass., but whose family had moved first to Mentor, O., then to Thomson. John and Jane Electa lived for a time in Leroy, O., then in Painesville, O. The Bible was there, left by them to their daughter Elizabeth (Mrs. Thomas Baldwin) who made the original transcription of the record, Aug. 28th, 1902, from which the following copy is derived. Shortly afterward it was given by her to her brother, the Rev. John Henry House, D.D., the noted Congregational missionary to Turkey and the Balkans. He was then residing at Salonica, Greece, being the founder and principal of the American Farm School there. When James Hall, at the school, burned in 1915 the Bible was lost. It had narrowly escaped destruction, for in the 1820s, when its original owner was travelling as a pioneer to the Western Reserve in two Conestoga wagons, they were following the shore line of Lake Erie when a sudden and severe lake storm came up. The waters rose so fast that only one of the wagons, which were drawn by oxen, containing the family, and a few of the most necessary household items, was saved."

On the 30 Apr. 1754, "Robert Lothridge of Pelham was appointed guardian unto Benjamin Kid, a minor above fourteen years old and one of the children of Thomas Kidd, late of Ireland in the Kingdom of Great Britain, deceased." Benjamin Kidd married Agnes Johnson of Pelham, 5 Jan. 1771. The marriage is recorded in Pelham, but his intentions are recorded in Chesterfield showing that he was a resident here at the time of marriage. There is no record of any children. He died in Chesterfield, 7 June 1788, in the 50th year of his age, and is buried in the Center Cemetery. Widow Agnes Kidd married Capt. Seth Sylvester of Worthington, 10 Feb. 1789.

Town Meeting record of 19 Apr. 1763, states that Widow Margaret Kid and Sarah Kid were given notice "to depart and leave this town". This was no doubt the mother of Benjamin and his sister Sarah. The Elizabeth Kidd, wife of Robert Hamilton (No. 1), was probably another sister. There were brothers, Charles and Thomas.

3. THOMAS<sup>3</sup> KIDD (Charles<sup>2</sup>, Thomas<sup>1</sup>), b. 6 Dec. 1774; m. (int. 7 Dec. 1800), Betsey Tracey of Norwich. The high hill in the eastern part of the town known as Kidd's Lookout was so called from the fact that it was formerly occupied by Thomas Kidd, who built a large square house at this place. The house had a flat roof with a walk extending around the roof, protected by a railing. From this lookout, the Connecticut Valley and its mountains were plainly visible.

"This house was said to be haunted and that, at certain seasons, drops of blood could be seen dripping from the chamber stairs, reputed to be the blood of murdered victims of Kidd's malice. Thomas Kidd was at one time Deputy Sheriff of Hampshire County and, as such, officiated at the execution of Halligan and Daly at Northampton. His children left home as soon as they were old enough to care for themselves on account of brutal treatment at home and the unsavory repute of the place. He removed to Albany, N. Y., where all trace of him was lost. The house was occupied later by Tyler, Paine and Orange Field and was burned to the ground during the occupancy of Mr. Field, April 1836."
